VOL. LVI

RENO, NEVADA, TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 3, 1901.

NO. 29.

THE WORK BEGINS

University Terms Launched.

Largest Enrollment in the History of the Institution.

Although the wheels still creak a little and occasionally a bolt slips a trifle, the machinery at the University is all running steadily and in a day or two everything will settle down to its normal business.

Yesterday's recitations and lectures began in all departments, although the committees on classification and entrance had much to do on account of the new students entering.

A number of students were dissatisfied in not making the class rank to which they hoped to become eligible. This is because the faculty have put in operation the rules adopted last year which require students to make up conditions before being given advancement to another rank. It is interesting to note that notwithstanding these requirements for advancement have been put forward almost two years ago yet the attendance is being maintained. On taking into account the population of Nevada it is easily figured that the University of Nevada has the largest attendance, in proportion to population in the world.

The enrollment this term will be well over 300 which is considerably in excess of last year. The members of the freshman class will number 75. The Board of Regents will be in session Thursday.

Foundations of the chemical laboratory and hospital buildings are nearly completed. The hospital building will be finished by December 1st and the chemical building will be under roof by the middle of November.

Dr. Stubbs has given up the leave of absence granted him by the Board of Regents.

Many of the old students have not yet arrived. A large number of them have been profitably employed during the summer and have acquired themselves in a manner creditable to the University.

What Happened the Past Month.

During August the mean atmospheric pressure in Nevada was 29.92 and the mean temperature 68°. The highest temperature was 92° on the 23d and the lowest was 42° on the 21st. The greatest range of temperature was 48° degrees on the 14th and the least was 20° degrees on the 8th.

The prevailing direction of wind during the month was west and the total movement 4054 miles. The greatest velocity was 26 miles an hour on the 31st.

During the month the total precipitation was .38 inches. Rain fell on three days. There were 22 clear days, 6 partly cloudy days and 3 cloudy days. The weather bureau reported no killing frosts.

Richer with Depth.
John Wedekind yesterday made an assay of samplings from the Eorlor Home mine in Olinghouse. The samples ran from $201.60 in gold and 22 ounces of silver to $231 in gold and 24 ounces in silver. The ore came from a depth of 200 feet. The lead is nearly two feet wide. It is smelting ore.

THE PLACE TO GO.
Take your watch clock and jewelry repairing diamond setting and engraving where none but expert workmen are employed. All work guaranteed by the Frank Golden Jewelry Company, leading jewelers of Nevada.

Increased Traffic.
Charles Teasdale a brakeman on the C & C R R is spending a few days in Reno visiting relatives. He says that traffic on that road has greatly Increased since the development of the Bluestone mine in Mason Valley and the discovery of Tonopah. A great quantity of freight is being consigned to the latter place at present and ore shipments are heavy.

A Car Famine.

Only one car was available for the corrals yesterday. It was loaded with sheep and dispatched to Casaleto, Stockards, Cal. Several other shipments would have been made if cars could have been had.

TO PARENTS AND STUDENTS.

Straining the eyes while studying means inflamed eyelids, headaches, nervousness, cross eyes, muscular weakness and thousand other defects. Parents should help to make studying a pleasure for children, instead of a task, by taking them to the Frank Golden Jewelry Company and having their eyes properly examined to see if there is any defect in the eyesight.

JOSHES WITH EXCHANGES

Some of the Funny Things the Other Fellows Are Saying.

The Lazer Beer is putting in an electric hoist—Chronicle.
Usually lager beer is hoisted by the armstrong process.

For four years the Journal has been advertising Reno as a desirable home for maceaux, pimps, sandbaggers, thieves, tin horn bladders, dope fiends, thugs, midnight assassins and cold blooded ruffians with such success that the town is flooded with them.—Washworth Dispatch.

While The Journal far from admits the truth of this accusation it will concede that there are many undesirable still in this city despite the crusade being waged against them. There is a limit however to what we can stand. It is hoped in behalf of the slight reputation left to the town, that Judge Hummel will reconsider his intention of moving to Reno.

The Tuscarora Times-Review people are away up on certain lines of information but they evidently have not devoted much time to studying the Deceologue.

Here is a squib from their last issue. Dispatches of the 26th inst. announce an advance of ten percent in the price of steel in New York. Miners, obey the seventh commandment.

Of course miners should not "steel." When they want that dose they should send their picks and drills to the blacksmith. But The Journal fails to comprehend what that has to do with the seventh commandment, which, if memory serves right, reads "Thou shalt not commit adultery."

TRIP INTO THE UPPER ETHER

A Successful Balloon Ascension at the N-C-O Picnic Sunday Afternoon.

The excursion to Plumas Junction Sunday was a great success in every particular except in point of attendance. Only 29 tickets were sold from this station. Thirty-four came from Clarkville and the Sierra Valley and a small delegation from Amdeed and Terno.

The day was pleasantly passed. Plentiful refreshments were on the ground and the appetites of the excursionists were whetted by the mountain air.

Despite the wind that rendered navigation of the air dangerous, Prof. Earlston made a beautiful balloon ascension. He reached an elevation where the balloon looked but a speck in the sky. The parachute was cut loose and the aeronaut, carried by the westerly wind, dropped into a gulch beyond the first range of the hills. He was unhurt, alighting soft as a thistle down. The balloon was found four miles east of the Junction.

Accommodations Insufficient.

A hotel man suggested to The Journal yesterday that an effort should be made by a committee to secure rooms for the many visitors who will be in town fair week. The hotels have nearly reached their limit already and there will be no place to put the transients unless householders put rooms at the disposal of hotel men, the restaurants and hotels will be amply able to feed all comers.

Fall Among Thieves.

A Douglas county hay hand by the name of Murphy got a little too much stimulant Saturday night and took a nap in the open air. When he awoke his pockets were inside out and he was $40 poorer.

Where They All Go.

In Reno's homes the artistic spirit prevails. Our people know where the best decorative materials are to be obtained. "Porteous" Why of course.

TO OPERATE ON A LARGE SCALE

The New Smelter May Soon Be Put in Blast.

C. E. White of Philadelphia, H. E. White of Colorado Springs and H. H. Barbee of Colorado Springs have taken an option on the plant of the Reno Milling and Smelting Company, in this city.

Mr. White stated yesterday that he expected to buy it and that he would doubtless have the smelter running within sixty days. He also said that after having viewed many of the copper mines in this vicinity, he is convinced that if after the smelter has been running a short while, its daily consumption will not be less than 200 tons of ore.

It will cost at least $20 a ton to mine, haul and smelt this ore, which will mean $4000 a day thrown into circulation, in addition to a portion of the profits of the mine owners.

Further use entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 60 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

ANOTHER SKIRMISH

A Wedekind-Bell Decision.

Question of Jurisdiction of the Federal Court.

Yesterday morning in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Hawley refused to grant the motion of the defendants in the case of the Desert King Mining Company vs. George H. Wedekind and John Sparks to dissolve the injunction issued on August 19th and to say all further proceedings for want of jurisdiction.

Judge Hawley simply decides that the point of whether or not a prior action in the State courts between the same parties for the same subject matter has ousted the Federal Court of jurisdiction, cannot be determined at this time or under the proceedings which have been heretofore taken.

That the only method in which the lack of Federal jurisdiction can be determined is by evidence adduced before the Court after a plea or answer has been interposed by the defendant.

Judge Hawley decided a similar case last "previous that the State Court, having acquired jurisdiction, the Federal Court could not hear the case.

Judge Hawley's decision has little bearing on the ultimate outcome of the suit, except inferentially, that if defendants interpose a plea or answer, and prove that the State Court first acquired jurisdiction between the same parties for the same subject matter, that the Federal Court will refuse to entertain jurisdiction.

MORE INSULAR POSSESSIONS.

THE Louisiana purchase, which embraced a large portion of the best part of our southwestern possessions, cost the United States the sum of $15,000,000. Spain got a "pick-up" of $20,000,000 for her alleged sovereignty in the Philippines, which was never worth a counterfeit nickel to anybody for any purpose. The former purchase was negotiated by Thomas Jefferson and the latter by William McKinley.

But then the Philippines were islands and thousands of miles away, while the Louisiana purchase was a part of the homely American continent, and as distance lends enchantment to the view, the insular property was preferable, and, of course, its value correspondingly greater. It is now reported that the government is negotiating for the purchase of three sainted islands, namely, St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John, from Denmark. But the kingly ruler of that country thinks the price offered, $3,750,000, too low for the 223 square miles of territory which comprise the area of the property being bargained for.

Insular property just now is away up in the market, and the ever so many great grandson of Hamlet's father cannot be blamed for fixing his price accordingly. But he should take into consideration that while the insular situation is in his favor, the distance is against him, and he should make a reasonable deduction on that account. It is probably true that Denmark could give a guarantee title to her Caribbean holdings, while Spain's only conveyance was a quit claim deed, which had no claim to convey. But that should count but little in consideration of the fact that the United States could easily acquire the strongest of titles—that of conquest, by the expenditure of a few hundreds of millions, more or less, which would be a mere bagatelle in these progressive days of expansion and imperialism.

CONCURS.

THE UTAH STATE JOURNAL reproduces an article from this paper in relation to Congressman Babcock who has declared against the trust tariff and adds: "We agree with our contemporary in its expressions of belief that Mr. Babcock is honestly in earnest, but we also believe that he will not be permitted to get his meritorious bill before Congress. The trusts are waxing fat and arrogant by reason of tariff protection, and they will never allow any legislation by Congress that would in the least curtail their power to rob the people 'a comin' and agoin'." It requires the very highest order of moral courage to beard the trusts in their lair at the national capital, and no man who has not the courage of his convictions can do so and retain his standing in the trust protective party. We hope that Mr. Babcock is strong and brave enough to make a vigorous and conscientious fight for the right, regardless of consequences to himself and his political fortunes.

The Journal admits the truth of the above, but believes that good results will follow the action of the chairman of the Republican National Congressional Committee, whether he succeeds in accomplishing his purpose at the next session of Congress or not. He has the support of some of the most prominent and influential Republican papers in the middle west, and whatever strength he succeeds in withdrawing from the trust forces, will be permanent, and will furnish encouragement for next year, when a new membership of the House of Representatives is to be elected. Its moral effect will be beneficial, and will add largely to the chances of success in the next Congressional election.

THE LESSON OF THE STRIKES.

WHO doubts if this or even the next was a presidential election year, that satisfactory terms would have been made with the steel worker strikers long ere this? The trusts believe that they can well afford to hold out, and take the chances in the intervening three years of grace to conciliate the discontented workmen by renewed promises, made with the intention of being broken, and so as before keep them in line until their object is again attained. But we doubt if the game can be so successfully played. The laboring classes have received a lesson that they will not be apt to forget. Their repeated delusions will awaken them to the policy of exercising their power through the ballot-box and they will not be easily beguiled into again furnishing the means for their own oppression, when they can obviate it by the removal of the cause. If they allow themselves to be again deceived by the shallow devices of their oppressors, they will deserve to suffer all of the consequences of their folly, forever and aye.

IN CHICAGO, applicants for teachers in the public schools have to submit to a physical as well as a "book learning" examination. In our boyhood years, more years ago than we care to mention, the big boys in country schools used generally to conduct the physical part of the examination, instead of the teachers.

THE TRUE PER CAPITA.

THE gold coin in the United States in round numbers is $800,000,000. The population is about 77,000,000. Dividing the former by the latter the quotient is 10 and 25 one hundredths. As gold is our only redemption money $10.25 is the legitimate per capita, instead of $24.70 as estimated by our political financiers. To reach this estimate the prosperity howlers, included greenbacks, which are mere promises to pay, gold and silver certificates which are to be paid in legal currency, and even clearing house receipts, which represent nothing except balances between individuals. All of these were used to swell the amount of "money" in circulation in the United States. It is a false estimate based upon illogical and far fetched supposition to deceive the people and make a good showing for the Republican Administration. It is like the owner of a $50,000 building with a $25,000 mortgage thereon, claiming the former as the figure representing his wealth.

CATCHING AT STRAWS.

CHAMP CLARK, the Washington correspondent of the New Age, says: Republican newspapers will never get over the idiotic habit of trying to run the Democratic party. Like the Bourbons, they never learn anything. Just now they are busy in the vain endeavor to select a presidential candidate for the Democracy. They trump up all sorts of preposterous canards, all of which are in due time exploded as regularly and as certainly as the seasons come and go. Their latest fable—to call it by no harsher name—was to the effect that ex-Senator Charles A. Towne had declared for ex-Senator and ex-Governor David Bennett Hill for president. It had a great run. Many editorials were written about it, much philosophizing was done touching it and many predictions were based upon it. Even the cartoonists took a whack at it. Now comes Mr. Towne and telegraphs Mr. Bryan that the tale is a lie—made of whole cloth—which is the end of it.

ONE OF THE STRANGE THINGS IN THIS STATE.

ONE of the strange things in this State, says an exchange, is that while Lincoln county is the tropical region of Nevada, and can knock the spots off of California in raising figs, dates, cotton, etc., the people buy their vegetables in Utah.—Carson Appeal. Not strange at all. Soil that is favorable for such tropical products is useless for the growth of cereals or vegetables indigenous to the temperate zone. St. George in the southeastern part of Utah, produces all of the articles mentioned, besides peaches, grapes, and other fruits in the greatest profusion. And yet the soil will not produce a stalk of wheat, and the people import from neighboring counties all of their breadstuffs and vegetables for domestic use and even the meats that they consume.

IN THE FACE OF AN INDUSTRIAL WAR THE REPUBLICANS OF OHIO DEMAND A CAMPAIGN ON STATE ISSUES.

Over in Pennsylvania the Republicans demand a campaign on national issues.—Commoner. Of course the Republicans in both cases are wrong, for they have neither national nor State principles sufficiently commendable to make a fight upon. But, for our part, we would rather see the Democrats of any State win upon either issue than lose by adopting the other; and if the general Democratic cause is worth maintaining, we affirm that that is good principle as well as good politics.

ELKO is suffering for want of a minister of the gospel. Brother Boober of the Independent is especially worried over the ecclesiastic famine and wails piteously because of the lack of a sky pilot to guide him to the celestial Elko, where he hopes eventually to locate his eternal abode. While awaiting the coming of a scriptural expert we recommend to Brother B. careful perusal of the columns of The Journal, which contain all of the instructive information necessary to qualify him for admission within the pearly gates.

THE Editor and Publisher truly says: Editorials written with a pair of shears are sometimes better than the homemade article, but they will never make any paper a success. There is a lack of vitality, local color and individuality about them which the intelligent reader is quick to detect. They are counterfeits and never pass except with the ignorant, for the real thing.

UNLESS the compulsory arbitration question is settled satisfactorily by Congress in the interim, it will compose one of the strongest planks in the Democratic National platform in 1904.

A New York actor sang "Because I Love You," under the window of the girl who jilted him, and then blew out his brains. Love in such an acute form is as dangerous as dynamite. It is likely to go off at any time.

CONTEMPORARY COMMENT

Deep Mining.

A recent dispatch from Johannesburg says that the main reef of the Rand has been struck at a depth of 4,800 feet by the aid of diamond drills. This is the most important mining event in years, and goes far to prove the reliability of the new South African estimates as to the value of the Rand reefs. It establishes the permanent gold industry for seventy years, and practically proves there are additional deep levels equivalent to the whole line of the outcrop mines.

As the Comstock lode is the greatest fissure yet discovered in mining history, there is no doubt in the minds of practical miners that bonanzas exist in these fissures at far greater depths than have yet been attained, that will prove vastly more prolific in bullion production than those heretofore discovered, and the increasing desire of capitalists to seek investment in mining ventures is an assurance that the day is not far distant when the Comstock lode will be explored to twice the depth of its former workings.

Another feature that has been demonstrated in Comstock ore deposits that should prove an incentive for the exploration of the lode at the greatest depth attainable through modern mining appliances, is that it has been demonstrated beyond controversy that the gold value of the ore increases as depth is attained. When the Bonanza was discovered, on the 1400 foot level of what is now known as the Consolidated California and Virginia mine, the silver in the ore predominated in the ratio of sixty-six per cent over the gold value, while in the ore now extracted from the 1,650, 1,950 and 2,050 levels the gold value has increased to more than fifty per cent of the total ore value, and in one part of the vein, between the 1,750 and 1,950 levels, nuggets of the yellow metal are found in the ore. The greatest specific gravity of gold over silver would naturally cause the former when in a molten state to settle below the lighter metal.—Virginia Chronicle.

Patronize Home Merchants.

From Battle Mountain comes the old story of the swindler who claimed to represent an eastern tailoring establishment, but who was found to be a fraud only after many of the good people of that town had parted with their money. The victims are not entitled to much sympathy. The game is an old one, but it seems never to fail in effectiveness. Battle Mountain is not alone in having people who fall victims to the wiles of smooth talkers who are continually working some variation of the swindle.

It is a fair rule to look upon every stranger as a swindler who has something to sell and asks for a payment on account before the goods are delivered. If this practice were followed swindling schemes would soon become profitless to the workers and they would abandon the territory.

A word of advice to those who have been so often duped may not be amiss. Patronize the home merchants when you wish to buy anything. Give them your orders for clothing, instead of patronizing strangers and taking the chance of being swindled. Anything which local dealers do not have in stock they can get, whether it be made to order clothing or an enlarged picture of the baby. Try dealing with people you know instead of donating your money to the stranger with the fairy tale. It will be found much more profitable in the end.—Silver State.

Mark Twain.

Mark Twain has been out yachting with some friends. He was caught and interviewed on the yacht near Bar Harbor, and he explained what the occupation of the company was when out at sea and beyond the jurisdiction of the courts. He did it in this way: "This party lives by borrowing from one another, the amount of the loan being restricted by the limit of the cards."

That is an explanation for which many a man will be grateful. It will enable him to explain the mysteries of business to his wife when he is held out late at night on business, and if she is guileless enough it will be entirely satisfactory. There is no place on earth that Mark Twain shows off so well as in just such explanations as that. He is filled with them. He has written many funny things, but nothing as funny as he has talked in his daily conversations, and a ripple of laughter has followed his steps now for forty years. More than thirty years ago he was approached in Virginia City, Nev., by a well known orator and lawyer, who said to him: "Mark I have determined to establish a literary paper here." "Well," said Mark in his slow way, "I think you would succeed if anybody could. You are well fitted for that work, but—try to raise orchards and chrysanthemums in the midst of the desert of Sahara. Try to build a toboggan that would run in the vale of Cashmere. Locate a bee farm on the summit of Mount Everest. Start a literary paper in Virginia City—H—!"—Salt Lake Tribune.

AUGUST FLOWER.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson, sold by all dealers in all civilized countries.

No one on earth sells better pianos or better-toned pianos, or gives more value for the money than C. J. Brookins, Brookins has lived and sold pianos in Reno for thirty years. Why not buy your piano of Professor Brookins, who knows all about pianos and has made them a great study for thirty years? Call at 224 Virginia street, C. J. Brookins' store.

STOOD DEATH OFF.

E. B. Lundy, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germ and purifies the blood, aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous complaints, kidney troubles, female complaints, gives perfect health. Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her. This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

THE ARTIST TAILOR.

W. Schur, the artist tailor, began business in Reno in a small way a year and a half ago and has built up a splendid trade. He is a tailor for a splendid trade. He is a tailor for many of the most prominent people in this city. His work always gives satisfaction. Mr. Schur makes a specialty of ladies' tailoring. He worked six years at this business in Paris. Swis

A SHOCKING CALAMITY.

"Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kelleit, of Willford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly cured him. It's simply wonderful for Burns, Bolls, Piles and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25 cents. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson, druggist."

MINING IN THIS STATE

Culled News of Nevadas' Most Important Industry.

It is reported that operations may soon be resumed in the Austin mines. The Rock Point mill at Dayton has shut down owing to a scarcity of water in the Carson river.

Platinum has been struck in White Pine county. Platinum is worth slightly more than gold.

Two shifts of men are now employed by the Cuyahoga Mining Company of Smith Valley. The mill is being run day and night. An electric lighting plant is being put in and work on the new cyanide plant is progressing nicely.

Arrangements are being made to list the Tonopah mines on the Salt Lake Stock Exchange. Since their discovery ore to the value of $295,000 has been mined, and settlements for ore delivered at Selby's shows an average of $252.95 per ton.

One man has located seven claims in the old Lake district, Nevada, which has been idle for years. Renewed activity is now looked for, as some rich assays have been given.

The mines in the Copper King district, near Bunkerville, are working about twenty men and development continues increasing the showing of the property. The deepest working is now 200 feet below the surface. Supt. L. C. Bradley is pushing work on the several properties and states that a smelter is projected.

A run of 13,000 pounds of ore belonging to R. Culver, taken from the Joana mine of Comstock, and treated at Ely, worked up to over $120 per ton. Mr. Culver states that after paying for the hauling of this ore 15 miles and for the milling and for other expenses he had left over $10 per day for wages.

A strike in the tunnel of the Sapho mine near Ely has yielded twenty-one per cent in copper.

The shaft in the Fort Horn Hope in Olinghouse Canyon is down 180 feet. The ore from top to bottom assays from $35 to $140 a ton, says the Dispatch.

Some very rich stringers have been struck in the Woodchopper mine in Olinghouse Canyon.

Ten tanks filled with crude oil from the California fields passed east this afternoon. How long it will be before tanks filled with the products of the Elko oil fields will be going east and west? An one guessing this conundrum to the millionth part of a second will be given a controlling interest in the first gusher.—Independent.

A mill is to be erected at the McKinley mines at Ely.

A 500-foot shaft is being sunk on the Keystone corner claim in Lyon county.

On next Monday at 10 a. m. Judge Hawley will dispose of the demurrer in the case of Occidental Mining Company vs. Comstock Tunnel Company, and will decide the matter on application for injunction in the case of the United States vs. Anselmo Pedrol, and also the motions made in the suit of Robert King Mining Company vs. Geo. F. Wedekind and John Sparks.—Appeal.

John Taylor of Mill City has a carload of high-grade antimony ore at that station and will make a shipment to New York in a few days. The ore runs 30 per cent antimony and his mine is one of the few in the United States producing this mineral. He works the mine himself, extracting enough ore to net him a handsome sum from each shipment. The mine is situated in bloody canyon, about fourteen miles from Mill City.—Winnemucca Silver State.

Machinery for electrical power has been placed in the Belcher on the Comstock, says the Virginia Chronicle.

The Truckee Republican says Captain George H. Nihill will return to Sacramento Thursday and will return in a few days. While here he made arrangements for the purchase of the number for a ten-stamp quartz mill which he will build on the Hartley dig at Meadow Lake.

"The mines of the Searchlight Company are about to be taken over by an English company. The amount involved in the transfer is said to be in the neighborhood of $5,000,000. The mines are the largest and richest gold properties in the State of Nevada, and are in an excellent state of development.—Mohave Co. Miner.

SOME ADDITIONAL STATE NEWS ITEMS.

Carson has collected $991 for its district fair.

Nathan P. Walton, who committed suicide at Cape Nome on August 19th, by shooting himself, mention of which was made in yesterday's morning San Francisco papers, was a native of the Comstock, aged 35 years.

Since it has been proposed to close the mail route between this city and Glenbrook, a petition has been circulated and signed by the citizens of Glenbrook, which will be forwarded to the Postmaster General. A similar petition should be signed in this city, as Carson is as much interested in this matter as Glenbrook. The fact that a mail-service exists between these two towns and has been maintained for years should justify the continuance of the route. If the people of this city wish to continue the trade that is existing between the two towns, her citizens will have to see that a petition is circulated and extensively signed.—Carson Appeal.

PIANOS ON EASY TERMS.

And at prices to suit any one. The prices range from the hundred and twenty-five dollars up—twenty-five dollars down and the balance in ten-dollar monthly installments.

These pianos are fully guaranteed and have the latest improved action and are the style upright. No one on earth sells better pianos or better-toned pianos, or gives more value for the money than C. J. Brookins. Brookins has lived and sold pianos in Reno for thirty years. Why not buy your piano of Professor Brookins, who knows all about pianos and has made them a great study for thirty years? Call at 224 Virginia street, C. J. Brookins' store.

STOOD DEATH OFF.

E. B. Lundy, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malaria fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued to use his until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germ and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous complaints, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Quick Eaters.

"Have you any idea," remarked the cashier of one of the largest lunch restaurants in New York, "how many minutes the average down town business man devotes to his midday meal?" "At a venture," answered the reporter, watching the hurried play of knives and forks about him, "I should say 15 minutes."

"You set about the time," he finally estimated, "returned the cashier, "but in reality half that time would be nearer right. The average time consumed for lunch by the patrons of this establishment is just eight minutes. The fact is," continued the cashier after the reporter had ventured a foreboding for New York digestion, "people find it such a trifling and unobtrusive matter just to get a bite of lunch that few realize what a gigantic business it is merely to supply hungry people down town at noon, because few bring their lunches with them, and from the formation of the city none can go home."

"This establishment, feeds 3,000 people a day, and the amount of food required to care for that patronage is enormous. For example, when we put hash on the 'specials' enough is made up actually to fill a wagon. We are not the largest luncheon, however."

George Washington's Lottery.

It is not generally known that the great Father of His Country was on at least one occasion the originator of a lottery, the like of which at the present day would be forbidden to send its tickets through the mails. That George Washington was interested in such a scheme is proved by a number of tickets still in existence which bear his august name. It was the Mountain Road lottery of which George was the promoter, and it is, of course, unnecessary to state that Washington himself did not financially profit from it. All the funds raised by the lottery were spent in building the road through Cumberland gap, near Fredricksburg, Va. Originally the lottery tickets which Washington signed were worth $1 each. Now, because they bear his signature, they are easily sold for $50 apiece, though it is certain that not one of them will ever draw a prize.

What They Made.

A certain father is possessed of a pair of exceedingly bright girl children. The other day the eldest daughter, Alice, was putting her younger sister, Gertrude, through some arithmetical paces, and the father was an amused listener. "Gertrude, how much do 12 and 10 make?" was the form of one query, and, being correctly answered, and similar questions followed each other in quick succession.

The father believing the younger daughter was doing too much of the work thought he would put his first-born up a tree, and so he broke in with a problem of his own invention. "Alice," he queried solemnly, "how much do you and Gertrude make?" Without an instant's hesitation came the reply: "Gertrude and I, pop, make you a proud and happy father."—Exchange.

The Man and the Hops.

A Chinaman who had been condemned to wear the cage, or wooden collar, was seen by some of his friends. "What have you been doing," they asked, "to do this?" "Oh, nothing," he replied. "I only picked up an old piece of rope." "And are you to be punished thus severely?" they asked. "For merely picking up an old piece of rope?" "Well," answered the man, "the fact is there was a bullock tied to the other end."—H. A. Giles' "History of Chinese Literature."
